

Acknowledgment of Country

I acknowledge and pay respect to the Turrbal People as the traditional and original owners, and continuing custodians of this land on which I work, learn, grow and live. I recognise their continuing connection to land, water and community and acknowledge Elders – past and present.